KSA WHATSAPP REGULATIONS 2019

7.13.3

In 2019, the current number of users surpassed 1 billion. To prevent misuse of the platform, several regulations have been put in place. WhatsApp, owned by Facebook, has made information dissemination and reception easier. However, new challenges have arisen with the advancement of mobile technology. The use of technology in communication has proliferated in the last decade, more so with the advancement of mobile technology.

The matters will fall outside the scope of this policy.

1. Online publications which do not identify the author as a member of the Association's personnel or do not mention the Association's name;

2. Online publications which do not identify the author as a member of the Association's personnel or do not mention the Association's name.

The Association reserves the right to conduct an investigation to discipline the Association's personnel. The Association's personnel will be asked to hold their viewpoints or comments on behalf of the Association in accordance with the Association's policies and procedures.

This applies to the content that the Association's personnel produce.

Misuse of social media:

1. Unless authorized, only the Communications Executive is mandated to post material on behalf of the Association.

2. Misuse of social media websites can:

   a) Lead to internal or external sanctions;
   b) May also cause embarrassment to the Association and its personnel;
   c) Lead to legal liability against the Association and/or its personnel;
   d) In certain circumstances, this may constitute a criminal offense.
